Re: Chmielinski v. Nokia Corp. et al.
No. 12-cv-03511

Dear Judge Scheindlin:

My firm has recently been retained to file a motion for appointment as lead plaintiff and approval of lead plaintiff's selection of lead counsel in the above-referenced action. Pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 ("PSLRA"), any class member who wishes to seek appointment as a lead plaintiff, whether or not they previously filed a complaint, must file the motion no later than 60 days following the publication of the first notice that was issued advising investors of the pendency of the action. See 15 U.S.C. §§78u-4(a)(3)(A) and (B). The statutory notice was published on May 3, 2012; accordingly, investors must file a motion pursuant to the PSLRA no later than today, July 2, 2012.

Your Honor's Individual Practices require a pre-motion conference before filing any motion. However, because of the PSLRA's procedure allowing any putative class member to file a motion on July 2, 2012, we will not know who opposing counsel is until after the motions are filed. Therefore, we respectfully request leave from complying with Your Honor's pre-motion conference requirement in this narrow instance.

Respectfully submitted,
